In another column will be found statement of Mr. J S. Jones, Manager for the department of North Carolins, of the Provident Saving Insurance Society of New York, which makes some startling tigures, It shows that the business done by him in 1891 doubled that Nahunta Township—Sauls X Roads, of 1890. The strength of the comto liabilities is $261 77 to each $100 which is the best company in the United States. The net average cost of insurance in company is only $18.49 per $1,000, One Car Bagging, One Car Heavy Bags, One Car Bran, One Car Bran, -which is the best showing of any manager, we understand Mr Jones has written ppwards of six million dollars of insurance in North Caro lina alone, upon the representative men of the State since he has had charge of the business, and has placed three hundred and fifty thousand dollars in Green-boro alone. These are results of which any man might le prond.—Ex-from Daily Record, Greensboro, Grain Sacks, Buckets, etc. All above
